	Typed or printed name of person signing certificate

On or about January 18, 2000, a change of address form was filed with the Windsor, Connecticut, Post Office to have all correspondence addressed to 88 Day Hill Road, Windsor, Connecticut 06095, forwarded to 55 Griffin Road South, Bloomfield, Connecticut 06002 for a period of one (1) year.

On February 18, 2000 a diskette containing an Excel spreadsheet of application serial numbers and patent numbers for uploading onto the United States Patent and Trademark Office database in order to change correspondence address and practitioner of record address to 55 Griffin Road South, Bloomfield, Connecticut 06002 was Express Mailed to Box CN, Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks, Washington, D.C. 20231, to the attention of Steve L. Brendle, PK3 702/782.

Terry Downey of the Customer Number Branch of the United States Patent and Trademark Office subsequently required that Cantor Colburn LLP separate the application information from the patent information, each to be submitted on separate diskettes.

On April 5, 2000, two (2) new diskettes containing Excel spreadsheets of (1) patent information and (2) application information were Express Mailed to Terry Downey c/o Steve L. Brendle, PK3 702/782, Box CN, Assistant Commissioner for Patents, Washington, D.C. 20231.

On April 27, 2000, the Customer Number Branch indicated that their updating software could not process or had trouble processing certain entries.

On May 4, 2000, corrections to USPTO errata were faxed to the Customer Number Branch.

On or about May 22, 2000, the Customer Number Branch mailed a report verifying acceptance of changes in correspondence address. The report also indicated additional USPTO error on an errata list.

To date, we have not received confirmation of acceptance of the change of correspondence address for the above-identified application. The United States Postal Service will no longer forward mail from 88 Day Hill Road, Windsor, Connecticut 06095, to the firm's present address at 55 Griffin Road South, Bloomfield, Connecticut 06002. Accordingly, this separate request to change the correspondence address is being sent via
